PROVIDERS' CONSENT MOTION FOR STAY

Microsoft Corporation (Microsoft) and Google Inc. (Google) (together, "the Providers") have informed the Government of their intent to file amended motions for declaratory relief in the above-captioned matters. Because the Government's response to the Providers' initial motions is due today, the Providers respectfully request, pursuant to Rule 6(d) of the U.S. Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court Rules of Procedure and Rule 6(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, a 10-day stay of the proceedings so as to permit the Providers to file their amended motions, and to avoid the Government having to respond more than once to the Providers' requests for declaratory relief. The Providers respectfully submit that such a stay will promote judicial efficiency.

The Providers further respectfully request that the Court vacate its scheduling orders of August 19, 2013 (thereby relieving the United States of its obligation to respond today to the Providers' original motions). The parties will file a proposed briefing schedule in conjunction with the filing of the Providers' amended motions for declaratory relief.

Counsel for the Providers have conferred with counsel for the Government and the Government consents to the Providers' filing of amended motions and further consents to the proposed stay requested herein.

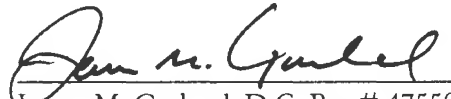

Respectfully submitted,

August 30, 2013
